Dated at Telegraph Creek, B.C., this 21st day of March, 1936.

WILLIAM P. THORMAN,
8328-mh26 Court of Revision.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The Company is authorized to issue three thousand five hundred shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is 9110 Milton Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on business as timber merchants, sawmill, shingle-mill, and pulp-mill owners, loggers, lumbermen, and lumber merchants in all or any of their branches; to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in sawlogs, timber, piles and poles, lumber and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, laths, sashes and doors, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(b.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, maintain, keep, and improve all kinds of sawmills, shingle-mills, and other buildings, plant and machinery of every description, and to dispose of the same from time to time by way of sale, lease, mortgage, or otherwise:

(c.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, sell, lease, give options on, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber berths, leases, limits, and timber lands of every description, mill property, mill-sites, water rights and water records, rights to build tramways, skidways, roads, foreshore rights, wharves, docks, piers, booms, and other works for collecting, holding, protecting, driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and all purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, sawlogs, pulp-wood, and other lumber and rights; to clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and for making the same fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, shingle-bolts, timber, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and to deepen or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream or other rights and privileges:

(d.) To construct, carry out, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, work, control, and superintend any logging-railways, trails, roads, skidways, bridges, reservoirs, flumes, watercourses, aqueducts, wharves, piers, docks, saw and shingle mills, electrical works, levels, shafts, tunnels, furnaces, coke-ovens, plants, machinery, telephones, factories, mills, warehouses, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of these objects, and contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof; and to construct, equip, maintain, complete, and operate, by any motor-power, tramways within the Province of British Columbia:

(e.) To buy, own, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in conveyance of passengers, mails, and merchandise of all kinds:

(f.) To avail itself of and have, hold, exercise, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, and priorities and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" with reference to clearing streams for driving logs, or which may hereafter by any amendment thereto or by any substantive enactment relating to the improvement of lakes, rivers, creeks, or streams be created, provided, or conferred:

(g.) To promote and protect the manufacture and sale of red- and yellow-cedar shingles in Canada, United States of America, and elsewhere, and to enlarge the market and demand for such cedar shingles in such manner as the Company may deem expedient, and particularly by advertising in newspapers and periodicals of all descriptions, and by the distribution of advertising matter and the display of advertisements of any kind:

(h.) To establish and carry on in British Columbia and elsewhere the business of buying, selling, handling, and otherwise disposing of cedar shingles of every kind and description; the undertaking and executing of contracts, as principals or as agents or factors on commission, for the purchase and sale of the whole or any part of the output of any manufacturers or manufacturer of such shingles, and the supervision and control of the manufacturing, grading, labelling, and packing of any shingles:

(i.) To originate and promote improvements in the law, and to support or oppose alterations therein, and to effect improvements in administration, and for the purposes aforesaid petition any legislative body and take such other steps and proceedings as may be deemed expedient, and generally to watch over and protect the interests of persons or companies engaged in the manufacture of cedar shingles:

(j.) To print, publish, issue, and circulate such papers, periodicals, books, circulars, and other literary undertakings as may seem conducive to any of these objects.
